

Louvre Tang

Associate

Louvre joined as an Associate upon his admission as a solicitor in July 2026.

Louvre's practice encompasses family and matrimonial matters, private client matters and dispute resolution. He has experience in advising and assisting clients in a wide range of family-related disputes, including divorce, ancillary relief, children proceedings, adoption proceedings, guardianship applications and cross-border family matters. Louvre also advises on mental health applications, inheritance disputes and other contentious private client matters.

Prior to joining Nanwani Solicitors LLP, Louvre worked as a paralegal at a renowned family law specialist firm and leading Hong Kong law firms. He gained broad experience in family and matrimonial matters, private client disputes, criminal appeals and commercial litigation.

Louvre obtained a Bachelor of Economics from the University of New South Wales and a Bachelor of Laws from the University of London. He subsequently completed the Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice at The College of Law Australia.

Outside the office, Louvre enjoys tennis, cooking and travelling.
