

Nanwani Mahesh Kalachand

Managing Partner

Mike is the Founder and Managing Partner of Nanwani Solicitors LLP.

Mike advises on a broad range of civil, commercial, and family matters, with a practice shaped by practical judgment, close client engagement and a strong commercial perspective.

Mike acts for businesses, entrepreneurs, families and private clients on disputes and advisory matters that are often sensitive, high-stakes or cross-border in nature. His work is informed by a clear strategic style and a boutique service approach that prioritises responsiveness, discretion and tailored advice.

An accredited mediator, Mike brings a balanced and commercially grounded approach to dispute resolution. Clients value his ability to combine measured judgment with decisive execution, whether guiding negotiations, managing disputes or advising on wider legal risk and strategy.

Mike is the founder of a legal technology venture, AI Paralegal, focused on AI-driven litigation support, reflecting a strong commitment to innovation and efficiency in legal service delivery.

Mike is also actively involved in mentoring, student engagement and professional development initiatives within the legal community.
